LEOPOLD AND LOEB ARE INDICTED

BOY'S SLAYERS ORDERED HELD WITHOUT BAIL

MELLON DENIES MEANS' CHARGE

Indictments Charge Kidnaping for Ransom and Murder Each Capital Offense—Written Confessions Reveal Cold Murder Plot.

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, June 6.—Two indictments, charging Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, post-graduate students, with the kidnaping for ransom and murder of Robert Franks, school boy, which they have confessed, were returned by the county grand jury today.

Both youths were ordered held without bail by Chief Justice Caverly of the criminal court. Kidnaping for ransom and murder, each are capital offenses in Illinois, with a minimum penalty of five years in prison for kidnaping for ransom, and 14 years for murder.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The confession of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., made public last night by Robert E. Crow, State's attorney, after the grand jury had indicted Leopold and Richard Loeb, both post-graduate students, on twenty-six counts charging the kidnaping for ransom and murder of Robert Franks, May 21, was revealed as an unemotional, coldly matter of fact document.

"The next problem was to get the victim and we were undecided until that day," said the confession after it related the plans for kidnaping, playing and disposing of a child in preparation for demanding $10,000 ransom.

"Then we decided to take the most likely-looking subject that came our way. It just happened to be Robert Franks. Richard was acquainted with him and called him over and introduced him to me and then asked Robert to go for a ride."

"Richard said, 'come on in. I want to ask you about a tennis racket.' He got in the car then and started on the gas and we proceeded. As we turned the corner Richard put one hand over his mouth and with his right hand beat him on the head. He did not succumb as readily as we expected and Richard pulled him to the back seat and forced a club or gas into his mouth. I guess he was instantly suffocated."

In coldly formal language the confession related the details of the kidnaping, stating that at first he feared there would be difficulty in forcing it into a culvert where it was found. When the body stuck in, Leopold said he forced it further by pushing with his foot.

With the victim's body in their automobile covered with a robe, the slayers stopped at a restaurant and ate sandwiches before leaving. They had plans for the burial and first demand for ransom.

Elaborate details had been worked out for the collection of the money which was to be placed in a safe, to be left in the car after the kidnaping, and when a Franks boy, finding near the body of a pair of glasses later identified as Leopold's and the father of the slain boy forgetting in his excitement, part of the directions for disposing of the body, Leopold said he forced it further by pushing with his foot.

Caution was taken that there might be no slip in putting the plan into effect, but neither of the youths had bargained on the discovery of the body in the day after the kidnaping, and the finding near the body of a pair of glasses later identified as Leopold's and the father of the slain boy forgetting in his excitement, part of the directions for disposing of the body, Leopold said he forced it further by pushing with his foot.

TOWN TOPICS

The Danville Federation of Missions will hold its regular quarterly meeting this afternoon at half past 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church. All of the women's missionary organizations associated with the Danville Protestant churches have membership in the federation. The feature of this afternoon's session will be the giving of a resume and an address by Rev. G. W. M. Taylor on the book "Save America," published and sponsored by women's organizations of this country and numbering one million members. Rev. Mr. Taylor has been studying the book for some weeks. Dr. J. M. Shelburne will take a part in the program as will Rev. J. W. Link and Rev. Charles L. Garrison.

Judge James L. McLemore, of Suffolk, returned to Danville last night and this morning at 10 o'clock resumed the session of the corporation court's June civil term. He intends to remain here from now until the docket of more than 60 cases has been disposed of. This morning the trial of cases appealed from the police court and involving the city's whiskey ordinance began to be reported.

Judge McLemore plans to hold court next Tuesday which is election day, being anxious to dispose of the cases here in order that he may return to his own court where a number of pressing matters await his attention.

Danville contributed its aid in an official way yesterday at the baroque held at Yanceyville which was largely attended by Danville people. F. G. Towell, chief of the Danville Traffic Department, arrived there during the morning and remained until the early evening, assisting the town officers in regulating traffic. Later he returned with members of the Greensboro and Durham police departments, who took in the ball game at Danville.

Officer Towell was impressed with the arrangements made for the parking of cars and the successful method in coping with traffic. Twenty-five Danville Boy Scouts, representing nearly every troupe, were carried to Yanceyville in a motor bus and were valuable in patrolling the grove and assisted in handling the crowds.

The finance committee of the council met this morning at eleven o'clock to prepare its report for the regular June meeting of the council. The public welfare committee is to meet this afternoon at half past two o'clock.

The Danville Kiwanis will worship as usual next Sunday morning at Mount Vernon church, where Rev. Samuel T. Senter, a member of the Kiwanis Club, will preach a special sermon.

Six Southside churches will unite in one service next Sunday night, this being held at Main Street Methodist church, where the cause of the Community Welfare Association will be presented to the Community and the spiritual aspects of the welfare work.

The degree team of Mt. Hermon Lodge of Oddfellows, of Leesville, S. C., will come to Danville next Friday night and will initiate two candidates at Bethesda Hall on South Union street. This will be a return call paid to the Danville Oddfellows recent visit. Tonight, Bethesda Lodge will close nominations for officers and candidates to be voted on next Friday.

A called meeting of the Ministerial Association has been called for next Monday morning at which time an agreement is expected to be reached among the pastors of six Southside churches on the question of Summer union evening services. It has been the custom for several years for the First Presbyterian, First Baptist, Main Street, Mount Vernon, the Second Baptist and the Christian church to alternate Sunday evening services during the vacation months.

Details of Killing of Sheriff Seago Learned Today

Mrs. E. P. Motley, Berryman avenue, has returned from Lawrenceville where on Wednesday afternoon she attended the funeral of her brother, Deputy Sheriff J. N. Seago who succumbed to wounds inflicted by John Harris, negro bootlegger whom he was trying to place under arrest, and who is still at large.

Mrs. Motley this morning gave a full account of the shooting. She says her brother with two other officers had gone to raid the home of Harris late Saturday evening, he being suspected of handling whiskey. When they came onto the porch, a car filled with six other negroes drove up. Sheriff Seago warned them not to interfere. They apparently heeded the warning but in a few moments had driven around the back and entered the house. They blew out the lamp light and a volley of pistol shots followed. Sheriff Seago was wounded. He declared before he died that it was Harris who fired the shot which struck him. The officers took the wounded man to Broadway to a drug store. Seeing that the wound was serious they then went to Lawrenceville and then to Richmond, through the country in a car. The wounded man suffered much loss of blood. An operation was performed in Richmond, but Mr. Seago died two days later. Deceased was a Pythian and members of this order had charge of the funeral Wednesday. He was well known in his section and highly esteemed.

The six negroes who drove up in the auto were arrested but Harris is still at large.

Ministers Will Discuss Mission Establishment

The question of establishing in Danville an interdenominational mission will be brought up for discussion and possible action at a called meeting of the Ministerial Association to be held at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday morning at eleven o'clock. Discussions as to the wisdom of this step have already taken place and have centered on Rev. C. E. Otey as the logical minister in Danville to have charge of such a mission. The plan, it is understood, would be for Rev. Mr. Otey to establish somewhere in Danville a tent where he would conduct periodical revivals and services every Sunday thus affording a means of bringing persons to the church who are now non-members.

AGRICULTURAL PLATFORM TO BE SUBMITTED

Each of Conventions Asked to Bring Purchasing Power of Products to Normal

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—An agricultural platform to be submitted to each of the national political conventions by the American Farm Bureau Federation, in conjunction with the Illinois agricultural association, will ask for a pledge to take whatever steps may be necessary to bring the purchasing power of agriculture back to normal.

"Every effort should be made to bring back into proper articulation the relationship between agriculture and the biggest of all our industries—agriculture," said the platform prepared by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The platform is a plea for a "price level" that is just to the farmer, the stock and bond holder and the producer and consumer. It is a plea for a "price level" that is just to the farmer, the stock and bond holder and the producer and consumer.

Merger Question Will Be Decided Here Tomorrow

Members of the Pittsylvania Board of Supervisors will meet the City Home Commission and the Pittsylvania Board of Welfare tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock at the site of the new city home, at which time it is likely that the merger of the two boards will be decided.

CANDIDATORIAL WETNESS CREEPS INTO W. C. T. U.

Open reference was made yesterday at Cabell street church to the attitude on the liquor question by the two rival candidates for the position of mayor, it was learned authoritatively this morning. Lively discussion is said to have followed what is described as being an appeal made by Mrs. Nannie Estes before the quarterly conference of the county Women's Christian Temperance Union held in that church for support of Captain Wooding in Tuesday's election, because he is favorable to temperance, while by innuendo it was indicated and so construed by some members that Charles E. Carter, his opponent, is "wet" in tendency and that Mayor Wooding should be supported.

Mrs. T. R. Fitzgerald, president of the Chatham Union is also said to have made reference to this matter. Mrs. F. O. Kidd and Mrs. L. T. Hall the latter head of the Cabell Street Union are said to have taken up the cudgels for Mr. Carter and to have asked Mrs. Estes for her source of information. The matter given, it is reported, was that spokesman had been reliably informed as to the tendency of the two.

Mr. Carter is understood to have taken up the matter last night on learning the reported facts and to have received promise of an apology if he desired one. In any event, a satisfactory adjustment of the verbal exchanges has been brought about and a prepared statement which Mr. Carter anticipated issuing apparently will not be issued.

Yesterday's meeting was well attended there being some sixty delegates present and other visitors. One of the matters discussed during the afternoon session was the best method of prosecuting the campaign for funds to make possible a monument in North Danville to the late J. R. Moffett, a martyr to the cause of prohibition whose memory is to be perpetuated by some form of monument. This matter will be taken up anew at the September meeting which is to be held at Chatham in the first week of September.

Partial Report On Mapp Cases Made to Pastors

A committee of Danville ministers appointed by the General Association several weeks ago to make an inquiry into the enforcement of the State liquor law both in Pittsylvania county and in Danville has made a tentative report but has been continued until a more elaborate report can be presented. Members of the committee are Rev. M. S. Taylor, Rev. J. M. Shelburne and Rev. S. T. Senter. Two members of the committee were unanimously prevented from attending a meeting which was to be held prior to last Monday's meeting of the Ministerial Association and so Rev. Mr. Taylor, chairman did not feel at liberty for the whole committee but did present statistics bearing on the past year. These figures showed an increase in the number of arrests made under the Mapp Act also for drunkenness in Danville during the past year and a decrease in the number of indictments returned in the circuit court at Pittsylvania.

These figures are interesting in view of the recent assertion made before the ministers that the liquor situation was growing worse and that the cooperation of the public conscience needed to be aroused. The committee probably will have a more extended report to be presented at next Monday's meeting of the organization.

COLUMBUS, O., June 6.—What may be the last national ticket nominated by the prohibition party probably will be put into the field today. #### Treasury Secretary in Letter to Committee Makes Denial of Allegations and Defends His Conduct of Department.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary Mellon today entered a formal denial of charges leveled against his conduct of the treasury department by Gaston M. Means in testimony before the Senate Daugherty committee. In a letter to the committee, the secretary denied in detail Mellon's story about his investigations into a report that Mr. Mellon had agreed to issue whiskey withdrawal permits to Rex Shedden, of New York in return for money to help to make up the deficit of the Republican national committee.

The denial applied in part to a conversation on the subject which Means said took place between himself and former Under Secretary Gilbert of the treasury but as soon as the secretary's letter had been entered in the record, Thomas W. Miller, the alien property custodian, was placed on the stand and testified that he himself had been present at such a conversation. Colonel Miller said he brought Means and Gilbert together in his office.

"I can't say exactly what was discussed," he continued, "but it concerned Rex Shedden. Means then was an agent of the Department of Justice. On this point Secretary Mellon had said in his letter: 'This is characteristic of Means' testimony. Mr. Gilbert never met Mr. Means. No interview took place.'"

Teer Stood Treat at Barbecue Which Cost Him $3,000

(Special to The Bee)
YANCEYVILLE, N. C., June 3.—Announcement made yesterday that several governors were with the official party which spent an hour here on the good roads demonstration was premature and proved not to be correct. Until the last minute those in charge of the affair here were under the impression that both executives from North Carolina and Virginia were with the party and probably three others and the impression prevailed for some time after arrival when the truth became known that none had found it possible to be present. Governor Trinkle was called back to Richmond on Wednesday night and Governor Morrison found it necessary to take leave of the delegation at Greensboro the same night, returning to Raleigh General A. J. Bowley commanding officer of the Virginia National Guard did the oratorical honors for the N. C. S.

The barbecue was voted one of the biggest and most successful events of its kind ever staged here. The feast was provided by Nello Teer, road commission agent, and cost $3,000. Over three thousand dollars, and between three and four thousand persons were served during the afternoon. Caswell people have been gratified at the appreciation expressed by the visitors of the southern hospitality afforded by Nello Teer, and Gen. A. J. Bowley both expressing warm appreciation in the name of the visitors over the welcome given.

LONDON, June 5.—A coroner's jury composed entirely of women, today returned a verdict of murder against a woman who had entered a suicide pact with a man and who had attempted to carry out the pact by inhaling illuminating gas in company with him. The man died but the woman recovered and was brought to trial.

Flies and Mosquitoes Smothered to Death

Richmond chemists discover way to rid home of dangerous pests

After years of careful experiment, Richmond chemists have found a simple, effective way to kill every fly and mosquito. Where a "swatter" merely stuns, or a stealthy slipper cannot reach, this scientific destroyer accounts for every pest within range. It smothers them to death!
Dethol is the name of this modern aid to human happiness. Sprayed freely through the house, and about the porch in the early evening, Dethol kills every fly and mosquito in the path of its far-flung breath.
Suffocates these pests by the roomful.
Sprayed periodically in suspected places about the house, Dethol will insure that your whole home is kept entirely free from roaches, ants, bedbugs, moths and other disgusting, destructive insect life. Dethol does not stain.
Many housewives also use Dethol
as an aid in house cleaning.
Sprayed lightly on tile, marble, windows, tubs, sinks, etc., Dethol saves hard scrubbing—you simply wipe the sprayed articles clean with a damp rag. Sprayed in musty places about the house, Dethol purifies and disinfects the air. Full directions on can.
Drug, grocery, hardware and department stores sell Dethol in the handy combination package—complete with sprayer and large can of liquid—for 85 cents.
You really cannot afford to be without Dethol. If your dealer hasn't Dethol, we will send you the combination package, post free, on receipt of one dollar. Dethol Mfg.

In New York

NEW YORK, June 6.—In an exclusive up-town hotel, where many prominent people make their permanent abode, a meeting of bellboys and other uniformed help, would take on an international aspect.
There are Russians, English, Spanish, Irish, West Indian, South Americans, Scotch, Cubans, Austrians, Germans—and Americans.
Were they all to bluster forth in their native tongue, at a single moment it would sound like a revival of Babel.
One of the men has been around the world three times.
A bell-boy—a native of Spain—recently returned from a honeymoon trip to his native heath. He made the tour o nips.
Another bell-boy, who has been married 11 years, has two daughters.
He is providing them with the best of educations.
Never once do they hint for patronage from the hotel guests. The unturned palm, so familiar at most hospities, is taboo. Their service fee, paid once a week, is large.
Until recently this hotel boasted of the only Irish head waiter on Broadway. But he was forced to resign—probably because he would not bow and scrape before some of the aristocratic guests.

A radio enthusiast was exhibiting great joy yesterday because he tuned in on a station in Davenport, Ia., broadcasting a violin solo.
With the finest of music being sent through space from numerous New York stations, he tuned them out for Davenport.
And in Iowa they probably were straining their ears for a note or two of some New York band.

News paper photographers—the camera men—who depict the day's news in pictures—are ever touching others with adventure.

Frank Meria, who has scammed all over the country making pictures since he was a kid, trousers top years ago, tells me of his most interesting experience.

Charles Evans Hughes, the man with the distinguished whiskers, now and then, the story was running 200,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,
Wilson in the 1916 campaign.

Meria was making a flashlight of Hughes at a meeting in New York.
In a premature exposure of the flashlight, however, Meria's battery burned about the face and his hand was nearly blown off.

Taken to a hospital, he told me he did not realize the terrible pain he was experiencing, because of this story:
"Did I blow off Mr. Hughes' whiskers?"

JAP RESIDENTS OF AMERICA ARE MARRYING FAST

Marriage Brokers of Japan Are Doing a Big Business.

BY L. C. OWEN
SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—California, after weeks of waiting, is finally satisfying its curiosity regarding "Kankodan Brides," a subject with which recent dispatches from Japan have been filled. But it is with some disappointment that California is learning about the new brand of Oriental brides. For it develops that they are just a new variety of picture brides.

Approximately 400 of the Kankodan brides have passed through the hands of the immigration authorities so far, and it is expected that from seven thousand to twenty thousand of them will have taken up their residence in America before the exclusion act becomes effective.

"Kankodan" in Japanese means "excursion party." But attaches at the Japanese consulate declare the term does not really fit the newcomers. The bridegrooms, they assert, are by no means participants in any excursion party, although Americans returning from the Orient disagree.

What actually is happening is that Japanese residents of America are going home to a "Kankodan." When they reach Japan, they are met by marriage brokers—the same men who used to ship picture brides to the United States after the husbands-to-be had picked them out by mail. The marriage brokers exhibit to the home comers pictures of young women who are willing to marry. The wife seekers then visit the home towns of the women they select—and if the women live up to their photographs and descriptions, marriages are immediately made. The bridegrooms, frequently traveling in "Kankodan" groups then bring the wives back to America.

Americans returning from Japan say that virtually every city and town in the empire is busy helping Japanese residents of America get married before the exclusion act becomes effective. Each municipality has its marriage broker or brokers, to whom the young women take their photographs and appeal for husbands. The brokers, when they have collected an assortment of photographs, hurry to the ports to meet incoming ships.

Most of the "Kankodan" brides who have come in so far are past 20 years in age. Few of them measure up to American standards of good looks. But that they are in the best of health is evidenced by the fact that not a single one yet has failed to pass the rigorous government tests.

MYSTERY CLINGS TO PRICE'S FATE RIVER SEARCHED

Mystery still prevailed at Schoolfield this morning following the finding yesterday morning on the Schoolfield bridge of clothing, later identified as that of Frank Price, also two phials of iodine. The clothing was found on the middle of the bridge and its discovery led to the supposition that the man had leaped from the bridge into Dan River which at that point is not very deep. There was nothing in the man's clothing by way of a note or message that would indicate his determination to kill himself and his wife, who is ill, has been unable to offer to the Schoolfield police any explanation for the discovery. She is quoted, however, as having told neighbors that her husband has once spoken of "going off," according to one of the investigating officers.

Price did not take off his shoes—at least none were found with the other clothing and there was a marked tendency among Schoolfield officials today to believe that Price is not dead and what he did not attempt suicide. However, the river bed was dragged yesterday afternoon and, it is further understood, the search is being further prosecuted today in the lower reaches of the stream. If Price actually leaped from the middle of the Schoolfield bridge there is little doubt that he was killed by the shock of the fall as the water is not more than three feet deep and this slight depth would not cushion so long a fall. It is therefore possible that the body has been swept down stream. The clothing found was khaki colored and included trousers, vest and coat. The iodine has been traced to a Schoolfield drug store where he bought it, it is said, explaining that he wished to treat his sore arm with the fluid.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS

A deed of bargain and sale has been recorded at the office of the clerk of the corporation court, transferring from J. M. Money to John D. Wall, 35 feet on Wayne street for $1,000.

CORRECTION NOTICE

The City Council in replying to some of the many accusations made against that body stated that the fines and collections resulting from changes made in the Police Department amounted to approximately $12,000.00 per annum. This statement may have appeared to some people as a reflection on the Hon. Mayor or some member of the Police Department. In order that no misunderstanding may arise from the statement the Council desires to state that the Hon. Mayor and the members of his staff have always rendered a highly satisfactory service and the increase in fines and collections were due to many changes in the City Ordinance as well as in the record and bookkeeping system installed.

It has not been the purpose of the Council to reflect on the management and conduct of the Mayor's Court nor the Police Department, and it takes pleasure in offering this explanation in justice to all concerned.

Respectfully,
A. B. CARRINGTON,

LOWDEN CHOSEN CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Former Illinois Governor Acceptable to President Coolidge.

(By The Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, June 6.—The vice-presidential nomination as good as settled, with the word that former Governor Lowden of Illinois will be acceptable to President Coolidge, the convention managers today devoted themselves to clearing up last minute arrangements.

The few delegate contests remaining before the national committee for decision were on their way to being swiftly disposed of before night, with the idea of leaving Saturday and Sunday and some of Monday free for enjoyment of the hospitality and entertainment provided by the city of Cleveland.

So far as the pre-convention managers can see, nothing has arisen to upset their plan for adjournment on next Thursday night. The growing sentiment for Lowden for second place, culminating in the word that his nomination would be agreeable to President Coolidge, the assurance that the name of Senator Hiram Johnson would not be presented to the convention and the possibility that

CONGRESS MORE QUIET ON EVE OF ADJOURNMENT

Most of Major Problems Have Been Disposed of

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Congress sailed toward adjournment today into quieter waters than customary at such times, having disposed, one way or another, of most of the major problems that threatened several days ago to make its last hours hectic.

The reclamation bill, passed last night by the Senate as a rider to the deficiency appropriation measure, had preferred status today in the House, while further efforts to get farm revenue advanced by some senators, but were advanced by some senators, but with little hope of success in view of the failure yesterday of the farm bloc to agree upon an emergency proposal.

The House also had before it today the Hoch resolution for an Interstate Commerce commission investigation of freight rates looking to a downward revision of tariff affecting agriculture. As in the case of the reclamation bill, the measure had last night to hasten action through suspension of the rules.

A majority of the Senate oil committee was ready today to ask for a vote on the report prepared by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, as approved yesterday at a meeting from which all the organization Republican members were absent including Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, who said at least three of them would refuse to sign it.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JEFFRIES

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Jeffries, who died on Tuesday at Edmunds Hospital, was conducted at two o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Mt. Carmel church, of which she had been a member for 65 years, by Rev. Mr. Strater. Interment was made nearby. The pall bearers were R. I. Dixon, A. J. Hudson, Tom Moore, M. D. Baines, J. E. Estes and Tom Allen.

—Miss Francis Williams has returned to the city after visiting friends and relatives in Richmond.

Senator LaFollette may not be formally placed in nomination, all have combined to smooth out the convention program and to assure that the session will be a brief and harmonious one, as the leaders desire.

Little remains to be done now except the actual drafting of the platform, before the convention really gets down to its business.

Kiwanian Skit Is Touch On Politics

The Kiwanian Club at its meeting last night at the Country Club, James T. Catlin, Jr., president, pulled the skit which was the local political situation in which the radio figured as the medium of transmission of the "hot air." A radio sending out the howling blast but was connected by wire with a receiving amplifier located in the club dining-room, where some sixty odd diners were aided in digesting a good dinner by means of this wireless and the nonsense introduced in this way. Seven or eight guests supplemented the membership of the club in the enjoyment of the evening's fun, these including Allen Clarke, member of the Council and also a Kiwanian, operated the receiving unit.

The skit purported to be listening in on a local political conference in a down town at which the members of the council and the candidates were freely discussed. These introduced some of the current reports and rumors now in circulation relative to members of the Council, but treated these in a humorous way. One of the talks at the conference on which radio ostensibly listened in referred to a report that a certain North Side member had been charged to still another member to engage the allied purchase of mules for the city by a councilman. By and by the conference got on the school bond question. One speaker at the night conference was against the school bonds because he had so many children to educate, while another proclaimed that he would vote for the bonds but had no children. Still another speaker suggested that what the children needed more than education was baths, and he proposed that the city undertake to provide three baths a week for each child at the Rodgers swimming pool. This was objected to because it was regarded as an unwarranted discrimination against Judge Womack and Joe Rosenberg, the objector urging that the bathing program be rotated, so that the children might go to Womack's and Rosenberg's pool.

While this absorbingly interesting discussion was at its height, somebody thoughtfully and considerably suggested that the conference adjourn in order to permit Herbert Martin and Herbert Ferguson to go to church, a reference to the revival to which the members of another organization have been especially invited.

STOLEN CAR AND 2 YOUTHS CAPTURED

Chief of Police L. W. Cole, of Schoolfield, and Officer T. L. Swannell about midnight located a stolen car which had been stolen from Kanawha City, W. Va. last Friday and with the car arrested its occupants, two youths named Jay Napier, aged 16, and E. Lively, aged 18, of Molden, W. Va. The car was found with having been stolen since been on the road driving it. The car with its two occupants was found on the side of the road just outside of Schoolfield about midnight. It bore a West Virginia tag. On questioning the two youths admitted having stolen the car.

Along with the car were found a box of tools probably stolen from some garage and a half-gallon oil measure such as filling stations use, and which is believed also to have been stolen by the two adventurous youths. The two boys seemed to be somewhat at the verge of despair and appear to have been on the road without means or with small means of subsistence and operation of the car for nearly a week. It was the impression of the officers that the two youths are not altogether sorry that they have reached the end of their adventure.

It is believed that the two boys will be willing to return to West Virginia without the formality of requisition papers. Notices had been received by the Schoolfield police of the theft of the car, with a description, and it was upon this basis that they were able to identify the truant car.

LIQUOR CAR AND ITS 10-GALLON CARGO HELD

A Ford car with ten one-gallon cans or cans of corn whiskey was located by the Schoolfield police yesterday afternoon in A. M. Dunn's shed on College avenue, Schoolfield, and was taken into custody. It develops that the car had been chased from Bachelor's Hall, or a point on the road near there by Mr. Oskes, a county officer, but that the pursued car had eluded the county officer and been lost after reaching the shed. Dunn's shed, after running the car into Dunn's shed, along with its wet cargo, disappeared.

The liquor and the car are in custody, and the Schoolfield police department will question the owner of the shed where the car was found with a view to ascertaining why it was brought or left there, and if possible by whom the car was being driven.

See Improvement In Cotton Trade

BABSON PARK, Mass. June 5.—Roger W. Babson, the statistician, today issued a statement regarding the position in the textile industry which does much to clear up confusion attending this situation.

"Business men in the East, at least those pessimistically inclined," says Mr. Babson, have been spending a great deal of time bewailing the situation in the cotton textile industry. The industry is depressed—there is no doubt of that—but it is hardly as sad a situation as these word-of-mouth reports would lead you to believe.

"Examining the textile industry as a whole we find that employment for April 1924 in 1924 establishments total 431,010 as against 484,771 for April of 1923. This shows a loss in employment of 11.1 per cent. If we make this same study for the cotton industry alone and examine actual spindle hours we find that the United States as a whole average 77 per cent. as active as in April of last year. The South has suffered least in this current year, and shows spindle hours totaling 86 per cent. of last year. New England has dropped down to 66 per cent. of April 1923. Unemployment in the latter section has become a real problem.

Examining active spindle hours for April 1924 as compared with 1923 we find that the record by states shows activity as follows: Alabama 86 per cent. Connecticut 77 per cent. Georgia 87 per cent. Maine 78 per cent. Massachusetts 64 per cent. New Hampshire 65 per cent. New Jersey 93 per cent. New York 69 per cent. North Carolina 84 per cent. Pennsylvania 85 per cent. Rhode Island 83 per cent. South Carolina 87 per cent. Tennessee 109 per cent. Virginia 79 per cent. other states 75 per cent. Prices of cotton goods, meanwhile, remain practically the same as last month. Denims have dropped slightly. The change in the list shows no appreciable change. Trading is very light and the industry marks time.

"If we search for the causes of this slowing up in the cotton goods we find it due to a decline in general activity at home and to an unusual increase in imports of foreign cotton goods. Study shows that countries recovering from a war or from other similar disaster recognize their economic machinery and the following order: 1. food, 2. clothing, 3. shelter, 4. luxuries and all other goods. Our exports to Europe of food were very high during and immediately following the war. Then Europe began again to care for itself. Our large exports of cloth lasted until the European textile mills got back on to a producing basis. Instead of buying heavily from us as these countries began to produce, they have entered the market with goods of their own manufacture and those who were customers have become competitors. Exports of cotton cloth have dwindled and imports have increased materially. Nine months ending March shows imports valued at $3,365,744, over the same period the previous year.

A comparison of percentage activity for March and April, however, would indicate a gradual and relative improvement in conditions here. March, for instance, showed active spindle hours totaling 74 per cent. of the previous March, but April totaled 77 per cent. of April 1923. The activity in cotton growing states figures 84 per cent. for March and 86 per cent. for April as compared with a year ago. Even in New England where the textile people are hit the hardest, March showed activity 63 per cent. of last year, while April improved to 68 per cent. Comparison of activity by states show practically a universal improvement in this figure.

"Al" Still Must Report to "Ma"

ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—Governor "Al" Smith likes to walk to work. It is the one form of recreation he is sure of getting these days.

For the strenuous and the approach of the Democratic convention have cut in on his other favorite diversions—golfing, playing with the animals in his children's zoo and watching the movies.

The showing of these pictures takes place in the large sitting room of the executive mansion two or three times a week. Among the audience is the Smith family, the mansion employees and young Walter Smith's friends. They never miss a laugh. Neither does the governor when he gets the chance to be there. If his time is not taken up by a wholesome laugh and gives many—with his inimitable stories.

He gets up in the morning with a song on his lips, shaves himself, has a home-made breakfast, stops a while to play with his children's pet in the back-yard menagerie, and goes down to the capitol the same time as the clerks. A morning's work at his desk and he goes home to luncheon, taking his secretary with him usually.

A brisk walk back to the office, a clean-up of the day's work, and he likes a few holes of golf—if his time permits. But the end of the legislative left so many things hanging fire, that this sport has been passed up, although the governor still takes it just as soon as he gets away into the country or down the Jersey coast for a little vacation.

Whenever the pressure of business becomes too great, he always calls up "Ma" Smith on the phone and tells her he will be late for dinner. Although her husband may be governor, she does not like to keep dinner waiting for him now anymore than she did when he was in the trucking business in New York.

LIBERALS ARE AT WORK FOR FREEDOM OF SOVIETS

BERLIN, June 5.—Maria Spiridonova was saved from the gallows in 1906 by a world-wide protest.

The czar's government did not dare execute the 18-year-old girl in the face of universal protest against the brutal soldiers, and she was sent to Siberia for life.

With the abdication of the czar Spiridonova returned to Russia to become an effective leader of the peasants. But she soon ran foul of the Bolshevik leaders with whom she tried to work, and now another world-wide movement has been launched to rescue her from Soviet imprisonment and make it possible for her to leave Russia and regain her health in some quiet land.

The International Workers' Association is behind the movement to effect the release of Spiridonova and also hundreds of other revolutionists, socialists and workers who are in Soviet prisons and concentration camps. A general appeal has been made to all labor and revolutionary organizations throughout the world to help in the campaign for the release of non-partisan revolutionists held in Russian prisons. Social revolutionists, anarchists, syndicalists and various other sorts of so-called liberals and radicals are joining the movement and broad-casting their appeals in terms which denounce the communist regime in Russia as a dictatorship over the proletariat rather than a dictatorship of the proletariat.

Since July 6, 1918, Maria Spiridonova has been in disfavor with the Bolshevik government. When she returned from 11 years of Siberian exile she was welcomed as a leader of the peasants, and worked with the Soviet regime until the ratification of the Brest-Litovsk Treaty, which she denounced as inimical to the interests of the peasants.

With many other Left Social revolutionists she was arrested after the murder of Count Mierbach, the German ambassador, and her life since has been one of constant persecution, according to the organizations which are seeking Maria's release.

DANVILLE MAN TELLS OF FLORIDA JUNGLES

The following article appearing in a recent number of "The Independent," St. Petersburg, Florida, was written by John Estes, of this city, and is reprinted here because of its personal interest to his many Danville friends, and also is interesting as a Virginia impression of the portion of the land of early romance.

"Although his business is selling real estate, John S. Estes, one of the popular members of Fuller-Hunter corporation's Jungle Terrace sales, force has produced a literary composition of interest as a result of his trips over the jungle this season with prospective purchasers.

Estes was so impressed with what he has seen and learned of the land along Boca Ceiga bay that his composition on the beauties of nature there was quite spontaneous, so far as effort was concerned, and he composed the narrative one evening last week after he had completed his day's work as a salesman.

Here is what Estes wrote:

"Mystic Charmas."

Learned men have studied me and wondered what has taken place around me, but I hold this a secret. Not for those scientists who wish to write my history and place my origin in cold books, but for the benefit of those who love me and admire my beauty. I write this.

Long ago when Rome was in all her glory, when Anthony sailed to his mortal destruction, when the Greeks fought their many battles, I was a wild, beautiful place. The dians hunted wild animals over me and wondered at my beauty.

Then came the white men from Spain who landed on my shores and called me "The Promised Land." They called their backs with water from my spring, which they called, "Fountain of Youth." These men in steel helmets, with clanking swords were enchanted with my beauty, so they sailed back home to tell all Europe of my wondrous domain.

When they brought more white men from that far away land the savages decided to defend me, for they loved me. At night they would steal upon the white men and ruthlessly kill them, but the white men finally drove the savages back.

Through all these wars I was left unharmed for I am a rare gem respected both by man and beast. They worshipped me, a shrine of beauty.

I live in Florida on the beautiful sun-kissed shores of Boca Ceiga bay. Happy people gaze upon me and wonder at me. They have picnics upon me and thrill at me as I show them my hidden beauty, for beauty ful birds sing in my trees. I live in sunshine, in tropical breezes—none can resist my lure.

Through all the years man has left marring my beauty but adding to it. They feel that I am a sacred thing—too dear a prize to hurt. Loving hands touch me only to rejoice, for my message is one of sunshine.

People are now building beautiful homes around me that they may see more of my beauty as I unfold hidden secrets to those who love me and believe in me.

So, even though I regret the passing of those older days, the quaint ceremonies of the savages and the many sights I have seen, I am content; I rejoice—for men adding to my beauty and soon I shall be the most beautiful place in the world—for I am The Jungle.

TWO PEDESTRIANS HIKING ON A WAGER TO COVER U. S.

Ed Lovings and Philip Kivett, of Winston-Salem, N. C., reached Danville last night, walking or traveling on a wager that they will cover every state in the Union without riding any sort of train, but will work their way through. Apparently "hike" by motorists are not included in the forbidden methods of travel. Both are young men in quest of adventure. The two will leave today on their journey to Richmond, Va.

Don't let constipation make you an invalid—relieve it with Kellogg's Bran Few people realize how dangerous is constipation until this dread disease tears down their health. Did you know that more than forty serious diseases can be traced to constipation?

Keep your health, or restore it, with Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krummled. It brings relief in mild and chronic cases of constipation. It is effective because it is ALL bran. That is why it is recommended so highly by doctors. They know that only ALL bran can bring 100 per cent results. Part bran is, at best, only a halfway measure.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran will bring permanent relief—even in the most chronic case. It is guaranteed to do so. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Because it is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. Like nature, it acts naturally. It makes the intestine function regularly.

Eat it every day—two tablespoons—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Enjoy it in those wonderful recipes given on every package.

The flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krummled, is delicious. It is crisp, nut-like. Quite different from ordinary bran, which are so unpalatable. Kellogg's Bran is made in Battle Creek and served by the leading hotels and clubs everywhere. Sold by all grocers.

CRUELTY CRIME'S SOLE DEFENSE

ALBERT H. LOEB, FATHER OF RICHARD

BY GEORGE BRITT
NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, June 5.—The diabolical blackness of the murder of 14-year-old Robert Franks will be the principal asset and defense of the slayers, Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb.

This is the belief here as the city rubs its eyes at the nightmare killing which remains a cold daylight reality.

If the youthful millionaire murderers had killed primarily because they needed money, if they had killed over a woman, if there had been any element of hatred or of fear, it would be comprehensible to the man on the street. It would be an issue of simple guilt or innocence.

But there is no precedent to guide in a motiveless murder.

"Just to get a thrill," explained Leopold when asked why. If that is a reason for taking life, then black is blue or green or red.

Sane or Insane.

Therefore, reason some psychiatrists the boys must be insane. If they could conceive and carry out as incredible a plot as they did they cannot be normal.

On the other hand some of the city's foremost alienists declare they are normally sane in every respect. Their trouble, say these scientists, is not in brain and will, but in heart and conscience.

There is the point, it is expected, upon which will depend whether the boys go to the gallows. Many believe the heartless, unbelievable ruthlessness will favor the insanity defense rather than strengthen the prosecution's case.

Foremost in rejecting any insanity defense talk are Drs. Hugh T. Patrick, William O. Krohn and Archibald Churchill, who examined the youths while they were in the custody of State's Attorney Robert E. Crow. Notwithstanding the uniqueness of the case, it is explainable within perfectly sane limits, they assert.

Girl State Witness.

Both slayers were precocious Leopold, the supercilious aesthete, always was considered a genius. Loeb, the quick, likable prodigy, was a pampered darling. And at 19, they found life a bore, with physical stimulants stale and mental adventures exhausted.

Their "thrill" explanation is logical. They are simply extreme products of the jazz age—brilliant swamp flowers with poisonous perfume.

"I AM THIN"
Her Friend Says:
"SHE IS SKINNY"

If she only knew that she could put on at least 5 pounds of good, healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face and run-down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, creates appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and chase away nervousness.

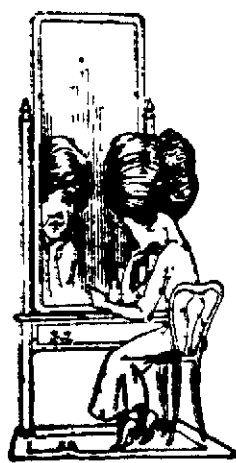

But it's her horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it. For doctors are prescribing and the people are fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, which Patterson Drug Co., Jacobs Pharmacy, 300

McFall, Frank McCoy and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

It's a wonderful upbuilding medicine for children, especially after sickness and sixty tablets only cost 60 cents.

One woman gained 40 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put up 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

SITUATION IN ALBANIA CONTINUING SERIOUS

(By The Associated Press.)
ROME, June 5.—The revolutionary situation in Albania is still serious and the commander of the southern nationalist force has sent a 48-hour ultimatum to the central government ordering his troops to continue to advance pending the government's reply, according to a dispatch from Avlona to the Giornale d'Italia.

The districts occupied by the insurgents have been placed under a state of siege while telegraph communication between Avlona, Durazzo and Tirana have been severed. At Avlona a new governing commission including several former ministers and deputies has been formed. All men between the ages of 20 and 45 have been conscripted.

The capture of Berat was effected by the revolutionaries after a bombardment of two days. Twenty of the attackers were killed.

NEW PROVISION IN MARRIAGE LAWS

PRAGUE, June 5.—The newly formulated bill regulating marriage in Czechoslovakia contains an "Enoch Arden" clause. It provides that, in the event of the return of a husband thought dead after the woman has remarried, he has no legal rights to can affect the new marriage.

The conditions that prevailed throughout Europe in the period just after the war, when the return of men missing or reported dead to find remarried wives, was an ordinary affair, probably inspired the law.

Otherwise the marriage act as framed follows those of most countries. Both civil and religious ceremonies are recognized.

Not all the millions of their families nor of old Jacob Franks can lure back their victim to life. Not all the slayers' tears wipe out a word of that story.

At the first sign of skin trouble apply
Resinol

That patch of eruption is not necessarily a serious matter! Even in severe, well-established cases of eczema, ringworm or similar affections, Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap usually relieve the itching at once and quickly overcome the trouble completely. How much more, then, can this simple, inexpensive treatment be relied on to dispel skin troubles in their earlier stages.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples of each, write to Dept. L-2, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

OLD-FASHION SQUARE DANCES BROUGHT BACK BY THE RADIO

CHICAGO, June 5.—The Saturday night barn dance may be associated with social events of the past, but if an ear is given to the hundreds of letters station WLS here has received from both old and young radio fans throughout the country, the cotillions and quadrilles still are in popular favor, and growing.

The station has established a weekly barn dance feature in its program.

with a famous old crier from "Loway" doing the calls. While it has been on the air but a few weeks the managers of the station have received more comment on this feature than most of the others.

It's like being sixteen again to do the old square dances to the music made for them. "We all like it from grandmother to the best" are expressions under which many replies could be grouped.

CLOSELY WATCH WEIGHT.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., June 5.—Women weigh themselves more frequently than men, the New Castle city council has discovered. Penny weighing machines maintained by the city disclosed this fact when the receipts were counted. Machines located where women use them showed nearly four times as much income as those more available for the use of men.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S.S.S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason.

Scientific authorities admit its power! S.S.S. builds blood-power, it builds red blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S.S.S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S.S.S. that did it."

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

TODAY'S Washington LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Proceedings of the Cleveland convention may be speeded up in order to make possible an adjournment late on the evening of Thursday, June 12.

For more than a few of the delegates view with apprehension the possibility of the convention concluding its activities on Friday, the 13th.

Even among the "leaders" there are many who face unafraid the combined threats of Democrats and Independents, but who lose their nerve and complacency at the prospect of picking a vice-presidential candidate and winding up the affairs of the session on a date popularly reputed to be laden with distress and disaster.

Of course these gentlemen are not superstitious. They'll tell you frankly they are not. They'll tell you frankly they are not. They'll tell you frankly they are not.

But then they ask, why take a chance? Why tempt fate?

Democratic interest in the Cleveland convention extends chiefly to the sort of platform the G. O. P. carpenters build.

For the Democratic program calls for the construction of a platform which will be more attractive and spacious than that of the Republicans—one on which there will be room for all who fear faulty construction may cause a collapse in the G. O. P. structure or who don't like their associates there.

Incidentally, the Democratic architects will study the plan of the Cleveland platform in the hope of locating weak spots. For in the campaign the plan of battle to defeat Coolidge calls for first and foremost for knocking the props from under the promises and program which his party chiefs will lay down for him.

Next to the matter of the Republican platform, Democratic interest now centers in the sort of showing which will be made by the "Farmer-Labor" party convention at St. Paul, June 17.

For on the extent to which that third-party movement makes headway depends very largely the latent danger to the old parties in the La Follette movement which will take shape at the conference in Cleveland July 4.

If the St. Paul convention reveals a substantial following in the face of repudiation by La Follette and by the American Federation of Labor, it may mean a split in the independent vote in the northwest which would result in not merely a third but a fourth party this fall.

Any such division of course, would jeopardize the effectiveness of the proposed independent campaign. Two fighting independent groups simply would kill each other or a third leave everything loose. The dominant "old party" in the northwest—which party, of course is the G. O. P.

Should the St. Paul convention "fizzle" no more than the Cleveland gathering, it is a gathering becomes of major importance.

The assertion of a party made in some quarters is that the St. Paul gathering will be a gathering of major importance. The assertion of a party made in some quarters is that the St. Paul gathering will be a gathering of major importance.

On the effect of this warning may depend the fate of a real third party this year.

VIRGINIA'S PORTION UNDER ROAD BILL

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 5.—Under the terms of the Federal Aid Road Bill passed by the House this afternoon, appropriating $75,000,000 a year for the fiscal years ending in June 1924 and June 1925, the federal bureau of roads calculates that Virginia will receive $1,478,154 for each of the years.

An appropriation by the last Congress of $75,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 1923, is one of the situation until the new bill becomes operative covering the succeeding two years.

The state of Virginia has been credited with total allotments amounting to $1,144,336 through up to January 1, 1924, there had actually been paid out these allotments the sum of only $692,965. However, there were a number of projects under construction as of that date the sum of approximately two and a half million dollars. The cost of completed road work in Virginia upon which federal aid was expected from July 1, 1916 to November 30, 1923, was $4,304,555 and the number of miles of completed road thereunder was 427 miles.

IN LOVE SUIT

Lillian Solloway, 18, whose love for Harry Finger, to whom she was secretly wed, cooled when she learned his father once peddled bananas on the sidewalk of New York. Now Finger is suing Lillian's guardian, Max Korn, millionaire of Peabody, Mass., for $100,000, charging Korn alienated the affections of his bride.

M'ADOO AND SMITH FORCES IN HOT FIGHT

Former's Supporters Think Smith "Bloc" Their Only Organized Opposition.

BY ROBERT T. SMALL
 (Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.)
 NEW YORK, June 6.—Bitterness between the McAdoo and Smith forces in the Democratic party has reached a point which promises anything but a peaceful clash when the opposing factions meet in Madison Square Garden on June 24.

The McAdoo supporters recognize in what they choose to call the Al Smith "bloc" their only organized opposition at the convention. They believe that if they could break down the Smith forces the west would be easy and the former secretary of the treasury might be nominated on one of the early ballots.

The men in charge of the Smith boom are the ones who are crying "he shall not pass" and it will be up to them in the convention itself to rally the scattering opposition to the aspirant from California. Except for the Smith organization there is virtually nothing. Some ten or twelve States will advance favorite sons, but there is no cohesion among these States, no plan or action, no general understanding. Several months ago the Smith boom would suffer a severe collapse. But such has not been the case. Other and younger hands have taken it up.

Instead of Murphy, the "machine politician," pulling the strings which the governor, Young, Francis D. Roosevelt, an Independent Democrat, is in charge and he has rallied a number of States to the Smith standard.

It will be up to the Al Smith "bloc" to thwart the possible determination of the McAdoo forces to take complete charge of the coming convention. The "favorite son" States may join in this movement but to get anything like an effective opposition together will require a great deal of negotiation and understanding before the convention actually begins.

There is a feeling in Democratic circles that former Governor Cox of Ohio, the standard bearer of the party in 1920, might have collected a considerable block of delegates to be against McAdoo if he had permitted his name to be used in several States, particularly those adjoining the Buckeye commonwealth. But Governor Cox was adamant in his determination to confine his preliminary forces to the Ohio delegation and to leave the rest in the lap of the gods.

At the present writing it would seem that the opposition to Mr. McAdoo is relying heavily upon the assumption that many of the McAdoo delegates are not loyal. The McAdoo delegates have had to make the statement almost at every turn. Apparently it is based upon the fact that in many States there was no opposition offered to McAdoo in the primaries and therefore the election went more or less by default. In other States it is claimed the endorsement of McAdoo was "lukewarm" to say the least.

The McAdoo adherents are perfectly well pleased to have the opposition proceed upon the theory that the McAdoo delegates will not stick. They believe they will. The very fact that the McAdoo forces had their own unopposed way in so many States leads to the belief that the delegates in these States must have been of the "hand picked" variety and in this process great care must have been taken to insure the loyalty of the men who will help to make the presidential nominee.

Upon the loyalty of the McAdoo delegates will depend the entire scheme of the organization of the national convention. Unless a goodly proportion of these delegates refuse to take orders from the McAdoo leaders right from the start, it appears today as if Mr. McAdoo will dominate the convention from the moment Senator Fairbairn, the temporary chairman, concludes his keynote address.

This does not mean that McAdoo will have sufficient strength to void the continuance of the two-thirds rule. That rule is a tradition in the party convalescence and none of the State delegations was instructed to vote for its abrogation.

Mr. McAdoo will face the task of winning two-thirds of all the delegates before he can become the party leader. His friends say he will do it and do it easily. His opponents say he cannot pass. This will be the situation right up to the time the convention assembles.

RUSHING RESIDENT JAPANESE BACK TO AMERICA
 (By The Associated Press.)
 TOKYO, June 5.—The difficult problem of returning Japanese residents of the United States, who are at present in Japan, to America before the exclusion act becomes effective on July 1, has called forth government action. The government has arranged with shipping companies for three special ships to reach America before that date.

Wants Pie at End of 15,000-Mile Cruise

By GENE COHN
NEA Service Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 6.—Put a woman aboard a Chinese junk that bobbed over a 15,000-mile course—give her a speaking acquaintance with pirates and pythons, typhoons and tidal waves.

And when she reaches sea trails—end what will she wish most that civilization has to offer?

"A kitchen and a gas range, of course," answers Choyee Waard, dainty Chinese wife of Charles Waard, like, bronzed modern "Dutchman" who has brought the Amoy junk of ancient Chinese vintage, from the pirate-infested water lanes of China, across the Pacific and thence, through the Panama Canal, to "snug harbor" at Sheep-head Bay, N. Y.

From this point of vantage Choyee Waard, with her Eurasian son Bobby—as fine a seaman as ever wore short breeches—playing at her side, looks out upon the skyscrapers and sighs for the poor city shut-ins.

But, simultaneously, she sighs for a kitchen. For suddenly pies have become more important than pirates and pythons.

"It's a little inconvenient," says she, in perfect English, pointing to the tiny galley of the junk. "And I would like to cook my husband a good meal."

Such a view is easier to understand when one learns that a python became part of the junk's menu on the cross-Pacific trip and it is said a Chow dog was gobbled by members of the Chinese crew. The episode of the python dinner caused the junk to desert, for the snake is a symbol of wisdom to the Chinese and may not be eaten.

The cruise of the Amoy started two years ago. Captain Waard had used the craft as a pirate chaser in the Chinese waters. For 20 years he had been a "Chinese" "river man." A Dutchman, with the sea strain in the blood, Waard left Canada for the Orient as a boy.

Now he is on his way home and he chooses the ancient junk as a means of travel. So he set out on such a trip as has no equal, probably in modern sea annals.

With two Chinese crew members, his wife and his son Captain Waard put to sea. He is one of the most ancient junk types being made—entirely of camphor wood and bamboo pine. A few helmsmen were attacked by river pirates and since then they have been storm-tossed and becalmed in many waters.

Through it all Mrs. Waard "has been a wonder"—as her husband puts it.

REVEAL ANARCHIST PLOT TO KILL KING GEORGE

BUDAPEST, June 4.—The Austrian chancellor Ignatz Seipel, who was gravely wounded, narrowly escaping assassination, the first victim of a vast anarchist plot to kill King George of England, President Millerand of France, and several other national leaders, the Hungarian metropolitan police revealed today.

The Hungarian police announced that they warned the Vienna police several weeks ago to watch for an attempt to assassinate Chancellor Seipel, and also warned Scotland Yard against proposed similar attempts on the life of King George, and the French police about President Millerand.

The plot was discovered when the Hungarian police arrested a workman, M. Zetaron, member of a secret anarchist death society with headquarters in the Austrian town of Lobben, for the attempt some time ago to kill Regent Horthy. M. Zetaron was sentenced to six years in prison, getting lighter punishment when he confessed that his comrades had plotted to terrorize Europe by wholesale murders of the chief figure in each nation.

SWALLOWED DIAMOND BUT OFFICERS FIND IT

(Chicago Tribune Service).
CHICAGO, June 5.—Carl La Roux treated himself to a $150 supper, but he will have to surrender to the owner, La Roux of Chicago's talented young thieves went into the jewelry store of A. Hess and Sons and asked to be shown some diamond rings. At the moment when the proprietor's back was turned, La Roux substituted a paste diamond ring for one in the case. Hess discovered the trick immediately, but La Roux vehemently protested his innocence. The police were summoned and his clothing thoroughly searched. Then the detectives, who know a few tricks of their own, bundled La Roux over to the county hospital where an X-ray examination showed the stolen ring in his stomach. He had swallowed it immediately after substituting the paste imitation. At the hospital a police guard is held over him constantly until the ring is recovered, after which La Roux will get a chance to reflect on his ways at the stone pile.

MRS. CHOYEE WAARD AND THE CHINESE JUNK AMOY IN WHICH SPECTACULAR 15,000-MILE SEA TRIP WAS MADE. MRS. WAARD IS SHOWN COMPLACENTLY SMOKING A WATER PIPE AND HOLDING HER BUDDHA.

Yet there is little of the sea taste in her mouth. For Choyee Waard is a Buddhist. Her husband's wishes are to be observed, and he wishes the sea—so she smiles, but sighs, nevertheless, for the kitchen she will one day have when the home port is a cottage somewhere.

Icebox Hints.

Modern Hospital says there is a right and a wrong way to use a refrigerator. To keep the icebox full all the time will keep the temperature of the food chamber down and will save on the ice bill. To have the icebox deliver a little ice daily will cost less than to have him come once a week, or twice, and fill up an almost empty icebox.

Before the ice is put in the icebox, it should be cleaned. The surface of ice may be infected. Dirt on the ice is liable to stop up drain pipes. Ice should not be wrapped in paper in the icebox. Wrapping in paper prevents the ice from melting. It is true, but if the food chamber is warm the ice must melt to cool it. To wrap up the refrigerator or the icebox as a means of saving ice is all right, but to wrap up the ice in the icebox is all wrong.

The shelves in the icebox should not be covered with paper or anything else which will prevent the warmer air flowing to the ice and the colder air from flowing to the food. The door of the icebox should not be left open. When the door is open the heavy cold air of the refrigerator rolls out and warm kitchen air flows in. One reason for the superiority of the iceboxes which have covers on the top but no door at the bottom, or low down on the side is that the cold air does not roll out when the lid is lifted. The interior must be kept clean. Food stays in a refrigerator for several days and sunlight never gets on the inside. In order to keep food for days in any place where sunlight does not go we must keep things very clean as well as very cold.

In the drains which carry off the cold water from the refrigerator a gelatinous growth is apt to develop. This may not spoil the food, but it stops up the drain. Periodically, a refrigerator which has a drain pipe should be removed and some ammonia should be poured into this drain and it should be "rodded out."

A refrigerator should be periodically scrubbed, sanded, and aired. Particularly is this true if the milk for babies and older children is to be kept in it.

Thought should be given to the position of the refrigerator. A refrigerator that is placed near the stove is an ice eater. The rent of the floor which has a refrigerator near the stove may not be high, but the rent plus the ice bill will be. A refrigerator anywhere in the kitchen or against or in any hot wall or hot pantry will prove an expensive proposition.

One Aid To Cold Feet.

Mrs. J. M. writes: I had my feet severely frosted when I was attending the sixth grade of school and suffered agony every winter for the next ten years. My feet would be all right until the first cold spell in winter, and from then until the last thaw of spring was over it was terrible. No one who has not enduring it has any idea of the torture.

Then one night I stood in the snow and sleet on a downtown corner for an hour, waiting for a street car, and when it did come it was as cold as ice. After an hour's ride home I could scarcely remove my shoes; they were frozen to my feet. From then on it was agony to walk, even in the office, where I had to put on old shoes unfit for the street, as anything else was torture.

One day our old colored porter, knowing my trouble, told me to have my father get a beef gall and drain the contents into a bottle and use it the same as a liniment on my feet. Well, I had tried everything else and was willing to try once more. (At that, it was not much worse than the kerosene you advise.) So I did as he said, and have not suffered with my feet for 12 years now.

It Is Not Serious.

L. C. C. writes: Quite recently my left eye has taken to watering to such an extent that it is both annoying and apparent to all observers. What does this portend and is there a cure?

REPLY.

It is not serious. The tear canal on that side is too small to drain away the tears. It may need to be enlarged.

No Leprosy By Food.

M. P. writes: To settle an argument, will you please let me know if there is any chance of contracting leprosy through eating Chinese food or food cooked by a Chinese?

REPLY.

No.

TWINS SWAMP CAPITALS WITH REVAMPED TEAM

RALEIGH, June 5.—In a game that started out like a pitchers' battle into an easy victory for Bill Jackson's Twins here this afternoon when the Capitals went down to defeat by a score of 9 to 2.

In the fourth inning Winston counted three times and the Duncan men came back with two in their half when McMahon, the new first baseman of the local club, outslung from man of the local club, Dean tripled. Firth followed the second baseman's example when he came up and crashed the second three-ply bat of the inning and Dean counted but the inning while the Winston outfit scored a fourth run in the sixth, four more in the eighth and one in the final inning.

Waldron showed well at short for the visitors, having handled seven chances cleanly, starting one double play, and getting two hits out of four times up. Standerd was the batting star, however, with three hits, two of them doubles, in five times at bat.

GIVES RACE WINNINGS TO HORSE'S TRAINER

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 5.—The Earl of Derby is handing over the entire stake money won by Sansovino in yesterday's classic at Epsom Downs to the colt's trainer, the Hon George Lambton, brother of the Earl of Durham, says the Daily Mail.

Lord Derby often declared that if he ever won the great race named for his family, the stakes would go to the trainer. Lambton benefits to the extent of about 11,000 pounds.

BRUMMITT'S HOME RUN WITH ONE ON GIVES THE VISITORS GAME IN 11TH

After Danville had really won an exciting game from Durham in the tenth inning yesterday, umpire-in-chief Mahley erroneously but palpably deprived the local team of a victory by calling Owner Murphy out at the plate, when he had scored from third after Belk's fly to Sessions. It is not intended to imply that the umpire deliberately rendered an erroneous decision, but that his decision was none the less erroneous and that it cost Danville a victory.

This is not the mere opinion of the scorer, who from a seat near the Durham players' bench had an unobstructed view of the play, but it was admitted the way a Durham backer sitting near by saw the play, and numerous others concur in the statement that Murphy's hand was on the plate before Catcher Pierre could by any possibility have touched him with the ball. Manager Murphy himself, who is always frank and honest even as to decisions affecting him, stated last night that he was not touched until after he had touched the plate. It was decision that cost Danville the game, for in the eleventh inning, which this decision required the teams to play, a base on balls and Brummitt's home run gave Durham the victory, after Danville had really won it. Danville strove to tie the count in the eleventh and did score one run, but fell short of tying the score by one run.

The game was one of many pitchers. "Deacon" Lankenan, a tall spectacled hurler, started the game for the Bulls, with Leo Harris on the mound for Danville. Harris was retired in the third with one out, after a run had been scored and earned off him in the first and after he had yielded a single and a two-base hit in the third, for another earned run. Lankenan got away with the first two innings in fine style, but got his bumps and put Danville in the lead in the third, when he was hit by a single and a two-base hit. Wilson opened with a single to left, and the pitcher walked Regan, who scored on Trefrey's clean two-bagger to center, as did Wilson ahead of him. Then Manager Murphy slammed a two-sacker to right and Trefrey registered.

In the fifth, Lankenan was driven out after passing Regan again, when Trefrey singled, and the two men on worked a pretty double steal. Murphy grounded to short, but Regan beat Lennox's throw to the plate. Then Manager Pierre sent Godfrey in to work until Shelton had warmed up. Godfrey walked McDonald, but Resco flitted to short for the second out. Then Shelton, another tall hurler, took up the box work. Inman grounded to third, and Murphy was touched for the final out. The one run was a small realizing on promising prospects. In the seventh Shelton passed Regan, his third base hit, and the pitcher walked Godfrey. Trefrey again delivered, driving a hit to left, advancing Regan, who had stolen second, and who registered on McDonald's fly to short right. Base hit, Trefrey, who had stolen second went to third on the hit, but Resco hit to Lennox, who made a pretty stop and initiated a double killing that retired the side.

A base on balls to Smith in the fourth, followed by signles by Lennox and Lankenan, gave the Bulls their first run off Wilson. They got a single each in the fifth and again in the sixth, when the pitcher walked Wilson. In the seventh, after Jones had been hit on the head by a pitched ball and, although resuscitated, had retired from the game, he seemed to unnerve Wilson for he immediately afterward grooved the ball for Allen, who, hammered it over the fence, scoring Hackney, who ran for Jones, ahead of the hitter. Smith, in the eighth, singled, and thereupon Manager Murphy withdrew Wilson and sent Bob Maitland in. Maitland pitched brilliantly and effectively and should have been credited with a victory, had the run scored by Murphy in the tenth been counted. As it turned out, however, he opened the eleventh inning (which really should not have been necessary), by walking Bourne. Then Brummitt, who had not made a hit in five times at bat, smashed the ball over the fence, and that gave Durham the game, for Danville just fell short of tying the score in its final inning.

It was a hard fought game from the beginning, with both managers straining every point to win. Durham used four pitchers, Hackney being sent in to finish the eleventh, while Manager Murphy had to use three moundmen. Wilson was going with fine effectiveness, until he gave Jones that bump on the head, a near-dazed him. Immediately afterward his effectiveness was gone.

It was a great game marked by fast and beautiful fielding. Mallooney deprived Maitland of a hit by his fine catch of the pitcher's hard line fly to left of center, while the first base play of Resco, notably his handling of quickly thrown and wide balls, was brilliant, especially when he retired Brummitt in the seventh on Inman's throw. The throw by Sessions to the plate was also an unusually quick and pretty one, but Murphy beat it for all that. Bourne made a pretty play when he scooped Resco's hard grounder in the seventh, threw to Lennox, forcing McDonald, and then retired the batsman on Lennox's quick turn.

Belk pulled a peculiar play when he walked off second base when the eighth, thinking Cochlin's out was the third, instead of the second. Brummitt quickly tacked him out.

The catching of Cochlin and his quick and accurate throwing merit mention in the ninth he snapped the ball to Resco and caught Sessions, who had singled, off the base. He also caught three difficult foul flies and tagged Lennox out in the fourth when he attempted to score on a fielder's choice. He had eleven put-outs and an assist. The first base play of Resco and the second base work of Brummitt, who handled eleven chances without a bobbie are also noteworthy.

The batting of Trefrey, Murphy and Wilson featured for Danville, while Sessions was the real batting leader for the Bulls, although Allen and Brummitt each scored in runs with in each case. All the thirteen runs in the game were earned.

The two teams will play again today, but it is difficult to forecast the chances, since both used so many pitchers. That may again be sent to the mound, or it may be McWhirter, although both pitched on Wednesday. Harris may be sent back today, if he shows form and condition.

PATRIOTS APPLY BRAKES TO POINTERS IN OPENING

GREENSBORO, June 5.—High Point suffered their eleventh defeat of the season here this afternoon when Alex Gibson, the Bride-groom, out pitched Submarine Thomas Green nine hits to fourteen, and the Patriots won by an 8 to 4 score.

O'Hara hit a home run over the right field wall in the third inning with the bases defeated and Railroad, Ray, the portly catcher and pinch swatter de luxe, belted one straight over the centerfield barrier in the fifth with Zitzke on first base at the time. The swatting catcher has amassed 22 base hits in 45 times at bat with numerous doubles and triples but this was his first home run of the 1924 season in the Piedmont league.

Zitzke contributed the fielding features of the game and despite errors made by the two teams the contest was a clean, well played exhibition.

Pitcher Rube Crews will be out of the game for about two weeks as result of dislocating a rib Wednesday in the sixth inning of the second game while attempting to connect while at bat. His injury is not serious, however.

Cubs Beat Giants; Browns Lick Red Sox; Yanks Idle

RED SOX AND CUBS ARE THREATENING CHAMPION RIVALS FOR FIRST PLACE

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 6.—Dogging at the heels of their metropolitan rivals and frantically tearing at the portals of baseball fame, the Boston Red Sox and the Chicago Cubs, the surprise teams of the 1924 season, are seriously threatening the existence of the four-time pennant bubble mythically blown by Managers McGraw and Huggins.

The hand of fate entered into the American League argument yesterday when the Yankees, forced into idleness by dampened atmosphere, pulled up into a tie with the Red Sox when the Browns lowered the colors of their Boston rivals, 5 to 2.

Conscious that the Yankees were idle, the Red Sox swung Howard Ehmke, their mound ace, into the lineup, but the starter took a most unexpected liking to Ehmke's slants. As a result the Red Sox are now sharing their upper berth with the Huggins' tribe.

The Cubs, playing almost desperate baseball, topped over the faltering Giants. McGraw dispatched four twirlers to the mound, offered up a trio of pinch hitters and even swapped catchers for luck, but the Cubs were not to be denied. Vic Kosen found the going quite rough, but splendid support behind him and timely hitting in the pinches by Cubs enabled him to weather the smoldering storm, Chicago winning 6 to 4.

The Dodgers and the Reds are

THIRTEEN GOLFERS HAVE CHANCE AT THE TITLE IN CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY

(By The Associated Press.)
DETROIT, MICH., June 6.—There were thirteen golfers within six strokes of each other in the contest for the national golf championship when the final 36 holes of play started today at Oakland Hills Country Club, with the possibility that any one of them might finish the day's play with a score that would carry away the title.

Bobby Jones, Atlanta amateur, defending his title, and Bill Melhorn, of St. Louis, were leading the four score golfers still in the tournament after yesterday's double round with a total of 147 strokes for the first 36 holes.

Only one stroke behind this pair was Cyril Walker, of New York, who twice played the links yesterday in 36-38-74. One stroke further back came Bobby Cruikshank, of New York, and Dave Robertson, of New York, the former being on duplicating his feat of last year of tying Jones for the title.

Both Melhorn and Cruikshank scored a par 72 on the 6,880 yard links yesterday, one stroke better than Jones' afternoon round. Another likely bidder for chief honors was MacDonald Smith, of San Francisco, who yesterday clipped three strokes off of par four for the second time and Abe Epinoza, of San Francisco, who set a course record of 71 in the afternoon and finished only four strokes behind the leaders at the half way mark despite an 80 in the morning.

Another contender who might

America Loses 7 Potential Stars For Olympic Contests

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 6.—America has lost the services of seven potential athletic stars for the Olympic games because of their ineligibility. Chiefly on citizenship grounds, to represent their native land, Finland gaining two of the number and Switzerland, Hungary, Norway and Sweden one each.

Foremost on the list are Willie Ritola, national distance running champion, who returned early this year to represent his native Finland in the Olympics, and Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, former national tennis champion, who was barred as a representative of America after an international controversy over her play for Norway, her native country, which she represented in the 1912 Olympics.

The track and field forces also have lost Mike Fackett Walker, hurdler, and Carl Christensen, hurdler, star and world's record holder, who will carry Sweden's colors at Paris.

Finland gains another star in Leino, who won the middleweight wrestling title at the 1920 Olympics for his native country, while Switzerland has recruited Max Grob, of Schenectady, N. Y., a gymnastic star, who is ineligible to represent his adopted country.

Leo Nunes, of New York, one of the best fencers in the country, is lost to the American team because he had not completed naturalization, but unlike the others, he will not represent his native country, France.

Villa Being Sued Stealing Love of His Friend's Wife

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 6.—Panchito Villa, flyweight boxing champion, has been sued for $50,000 by a fellow countryman, who charges alienation of his wife's affections. It was learned today a summons and complaint were served on Villa, as he was dressed, for his last fight on May 27 and yesterday his attorneys filed an answer denying the charges and suit. Ferman Dantes, who lives with his wife in Manhattan, is the plaintiff. Villa lived at the Dantes home when he first arrived in this country from the Philippines. Dantes alleges his wife grew cool toward him and went out often with Villa to celebrate his victories in the ring. Finally she admitted her affection for the boxer, the husband declared.

Dantes and his wife are still living in the same apartment. He said he did not want a divorce. They have a child for whom Villa stood as godfather while he was living with them, according to Dantes.

Shelton had a commanding lead from the third inning on, but the Christians gradually cut it down and tied it up by a rally in the first half of the ninth only to lose out as Gammon for Shelton lambasted out a long hit with one of his pards perched on second waiting for the opportunity to score.

The score by innings: R H

Grandstand Gaff

WELL, well, Danville won the ten inning game and Durham won the one inning game that followed.

This may sound funny, but that's just what happened. With the count tied Murphy scored in the tenth on Belk's fly to left. But, alas, his high honor, Mr. Mahley couldn't see it that way and Mr. Murphy was called "out." The Danville pilot protested vigorously while Bill Pierce hurried to the dugout perfectly satisfied, naturally. The decision stood. In the eleventh inning Brummitt's home run with Bourk on first and Durham two runs. Danville tried again to make it a victory but one run was all she could realize.

Both sides played a brilliant game and the locals fought desperately but to fight a ball team and an umpire besides was too much. Mahley was also off on his balls and strikes throughout most of the game.

The feminine fans were about to begin to think they would see Danville win a Ladies Day game for one time, but no such luck for them they all agreed after tenth and eleventh innings.

The shake-up promised by Murphy has begun. Belk last night got a pink slip, also Pitcher Allen, whose sore arm has kept him out. Owner Murphy has a number of new players in view, including both outfielders and infielders. He is after some good pitchers so that the good work of his pitchers will not be neutralized as it has been.

Eddie Regan will play second in place of Belk and pitchers will be played in the outfield until some of the new men are secured. Lefty Wilk will play the outer garden this afternoon. Harris who started yesterday's game will probably start again today.

Belk has at times played brilliant ball but his general playing has not been up to the standard and he has been weak in his batting, therefore, his release. He pulled another boner yesterday when he deliberately walked off second with but two out.

Art Trefrey is showing steady improvement both in fielding and hitting. Yesterday he landed three safeties out of six attempts, including a corking two-bagger which

AMNESTY BILL SIGNED BY CUBAN PRESIDENT

(By The Associated Press.)
HAVANA, June 5.—The amnesty bill cancelling indictments and ending sentences against a number of persons was signed today by President Zayas. The new law grants amnesty to persons convicted in revolutionary courts and to others sentenced to serve six years or less, also to members of elective boards and under certain conditions to public officials and public employees for crimes committed during their term of office. In cases where three judges in the higher courts voted against upholding a verdict amnesty also is granted. Exceptions are made of convictions of fraud, robbery, immorality, infractions of bankruptcy, tax and similar laws.

The good government league and a delegation of lawyers urged President Zayas not to sign the bill as did a number of newspapers.

QUEENSBORO STADIUM RECEIVES LICENSE

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 5.—The state athletic commission today licensed the Queensboro A. C. to hold bouts in its Long Island City arena, thus removing the last obstacle in the way of the Willis-Madden heavyweight match scheduled for next Monday night.

The license was issued by the commission upon receipt of an order from the fire department removing its ban on the big wooden structure as a fire hazard. The license is revocable, however, at the termination of a thirty-day period unless a permanent permit is issued by the fire department.

SOUTH BOSTON, Va., June 6.—Another blazing cross made its appearance about one half mile from South Boston, last Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. It was similar to the one which was burned several weeks ago, and was located in the opposite direction. If the people responsible for this cross had an idea that they could intimidate the colored people by the presence of the cross, they missed their guess, as one negro proceeded to shoot up one of the colored neighbors at the same time of the display. Those who have been watching this procedure have about come to the conclusion that a number of young men about town are responsible for these spectacular exhibits, and that somebody will be given an opportunity to explain the whys and wherefores of the burning emblems, sometime in the near future.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, June 6.—Sales, as about due. The weather forecast is generally for showers in all cotton States.

Business in North street slower because of setback in cotton and loss of the July premium yesterday. The heavy liquidation of July yesterday, which was rather unexpected, creates an uncertain factor in the market and must now be considered in price movements together with the weather premium over October for so long that it was supposed to be fixed, much the same as the May premium was kept steadily over July. The common reason for the premium has been the alleged scarcity of contract cotton and difficulty in getting it except at seller's prices.

The majority sentiment locally remains bearish on the expectation of good June weather.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, June 6.—Bulls and public utilities acting indecisively in general market. Conditions of trade, idle capital, no need for it in business, seeking employment in bonds. A few who are very confident of a speedy return for the better in business, buying some stocks. But in no department of the market is there any evidence of general public participation.

Is there any chance for an early change in business? We would all like to see that but there isn't a sign anywhere. I think the coming report of the steel corporation will show another big decrease in output. The oil situation is lower and politics promises to keep us all guessing for a number of months.

Taking it all in all, I cannot see how we can get anything better than these temporary bulges.

Milk is about 86 per cent. water. Sunflower seeds yield a valuable food for cattle and poultry. There are more than 12,000 foxes on fox farms in the United States. The number of wolves in North America is increasing.

The REFEREE

BY ALBERT APPLE.

MILLIONAIRE

You can be a millionaire for a day. In the most exclusive district of Boston, a millionaire's home has been purchased by Alexander Bannwart, who has an entirely new scheme for making money.

The mansion—including all its lavishly furnished butlers, maids and other servants—is for rent by the day or even by the hour. The rental for an afternoon of bridge is $50.

This fellow Bannwart is evidently a shrewd psychologist. Human nature is on his side. He is first in a field that will be widely developed. How easy it is to make money—if you have a new idea.

BROADWAY

The lure of Broadway is interfering with factories at the outskirts of New York City. Workers want jobs near the Gay White Way. Some are reported to have quit the factories because they got bored during lunch hour. A different sort of job near Broadway may pay less, but it's closer to excitement and gaiety.

This is human nature, and it is the thing that is preventing a general exodus of factories and mills from large cities to small towns. What percentage of the population—employers as well as employed—is more intent on a good time than old-fashioned work?

HEINIE

The Germans are getting ready for something. Just what isn't clear. But the government centered in Berlin is spending less than it's collecting in taxes and so on—saving as much as five million dollars a week. This results from the 20 per cent. increase in taxes.

The European situation begins to look more promising, with money piling up in Germany for reparations. Or will it be used for that?

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 6.—Yesterday's reaction in the cotton market was followed by a steadier tone in today's early trading. The opening was 3 points lower to 9 points higher but the tone steadied on better Liverpool cables than expected and uncertainty as to weather conditions over the week-end. July sold up to 28.55 shortly after the call or five points net higher and new crop months made net advances of 15 to 20 points. October selling to 26.02 on private reports of showers in the southwest and covering.

The bulge was checked by a renewal of July liquidation, however and fluctuations became rather nervous and irregular toward the end of the first hour.

DEVOTED TO DEAD

PEKING, June 3.—Poverty-stricken in the long absence of her husband, a young Chinese woman recently sold her 5-year-old daughter for $30, and used the proceeds to bury her mother-in-law, according to Peking police records. This husband many months ago, joined one of the army divisions in Hupeh.
